WICHITA MARKETS.

The Receipts of Stock at the Wichits Union Stock Yards for the Past 24 Hours were: Cattle, 87; Hogs, 1524. Shipments: Cattle, 30; Hogs, none.

WICHITA, Feb. 17, 1892. The cattle supply was moderate today. Nearly all grades were represented in the offerings today, the bulk being common and medium grades. Considerable trad-ing was done. The market was steady.

The quotations are presented are to give the hipper an idea of the general vange of prices. The actions are seen and grades sell within the limits of minute on according to the quality of offering and the state of the daily markets. These qualities are only changed when there has been a summent change in the general market. The presentative sales should be referred to logst the sty fluctuations.

HEPKESENTATIVE SALES

Fresh receipts today 1,524. The market opened slow and draggy. Buyers insisted on paying lower prices, and while sales men conceded a decline in the market, they were not willing to sell at the prices offered. Salesmen were slow to yield, and nothing was done up to the noon hour, but when trade at last settled the market proved to be 5c to 10c lower than yesterday's figures. The best hogs sold 5c lower, while the market on medium grades was for lower, in sympathy with the decline in pastern markets. Good hogs were scarce, and there were more pigs and cut-outs sold today than for a long time. Bulk of sales F4.30 to $4.30. Tops today, $4.35.

Ev'ry year w'en hayins did,

Fore taterin begins.
Pa takes marm, Joshua and Lyd.
Me. Thomas and the twins.
He piles us on the wagon high
As deep er he can pile us.
Till marm begins to fuss an erg.
Declarin he will spile us.
He jams one here an crams one there.
He's word at all martic'lar!

He's not at all partic'lar!

And come is crisscross, some is curved,
An some is perpendicular.
An then we start upon our jan't,
Dressed in our frills and flummery,
To visit our dear, good of an't,
Mehitable Montgomery.

The wagon creaks (far thirteen weeks
In our ol shed if's rusted)
So w'en it joins down on the ex

Thought He Had a Suit, but It Dida

The old cake and candy woman who fre-quents Park place and Vesey street found a customer the other day in an old man with a basket on his arm who was going to market. He bought a square of candy for a cent and went off bitting it. He hadn't gone far before he turned about and re-traced his steps, holding his jaw with one hand and waving the square in the other.
"What's the matter with you?" saked the woman as he stood before her.

"The matter is I've broken a tooth and want damages!" he howled.

"How'd you break your tooth?" "Biting on this infernal bunk of candy!
You ought to be prosecuted for selling such stuff! Look a-there!" He sat down his basket and pulled his mouth open to exhibit the broken tooth.

"It's my opinion that tooth was cracked before."
"No, it wasn't!" he hotly exclaimed,
"That tooth was as sound as hickory. And it was this stuff which broke it!" "I didn't ask you to buy. You came along and handed out a cent and took a
